

XM fosters reasonable competition by providing a service consumers want, namely, timely and focused information without commercials or the usual banter of local "personalities."

Please do NOT impede the growth of this important new consumer service. I take a very strong stance on this issue and will vigorously oppose any political candidate who is NOT in favor of allowing XM (or any other satellite service) to provide such services.